

EWIS Workshop U: “Researching Security Communities of Practice: Ethical Concerns, Challenges and Coping Strategies”

1-2 June 2021

Thursday, 1 July

WS Session 1 - 09:00-10:30

Welcome & Introduction

Nina Klimburg-Witjes & Matthias Leese

A different take on secrecy and bullshitting

Brian Rappert

WS Session 2 - 10:45-12:15

Writing and Knowledge Production in Researching Security Communities of Practice

Nina Perkowski

presented by: Philipp Neubauer

Careless Talk Costs Lives: The Causes and Effects of Marginalizing Peacebuilding Practitioners with Caring Responsibilities

Eleanor Gordon

Lunch Break (12:15-13:15)

WS Session 3 - 13:15-14:45

Navigating Between Identities and Power Relations: Reflections on Fieldwork in the Study of Peacekeepers

Vanessa Gauthier Vela

Informants at Risk. Navigating personal relations, dependency, trust and ethical concerns regarding the role of informants

Franziska Plümmer & Sabrina Habich-Sobiegalla

WS Session 4 - 15:00-16:30

Researching security: Challenges and coping strategies

Nina Klimburg-Witjes, Matthias Leese & Paul Trauttmansdorff

Making International Police Work

Philipp Neubauer

Friday, 2 July

WS Session 5 - 10:30-12:00

Assessing contradictory evidence in security research

Anastasiiia Kudlenko

Practicing companionship: when, with whom and for what? Notes on symmetrical research approaches from a feminist methodology stance

Hannah Muehlenhoff & Natalie Welfens

Lunch Break (12:00-13:00)

WS Session 6 - 13:00-14:30

'Side Gate' into the Security Field

Selma Lamprecht

Conclusions and wrap-up

Nina Klimburg-Witjes & Matthias Leese